

2022 CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Deadline: Wednesday, August 31, 2022

July 08, 2022

Dear SSWR member,

Strong and committed leadership is essential to SSWR's ongoing success. Please consider nominating yourself or a colleague for inclusion on the next election ballot for the SSWR Board of Directors.

Nominations are now open for the following positions for the governance year commencing February 1, 2023:

- one president-elect
- one vice president-elect
- three directors-at-large
- one early career director-at-large

The election ballot shall include two nominees for president-elect, two nominees for vice president-elect, six nominees for the three open director-at-large positions, and two nominees for the early career, director-at-large.

The Nominations and Elections Committee is committed to include nominees on the election ballot who represent diversity including but not limited to race, ethnicity, nation, institutional representation, gender identity and sexual orientation, social work research topic areas, and career levels.

Prospective nominees should be prepared to carry out the duties described below as well as additional tasks required for SSWR's governance.

DESCRIPTIONS OF OPEN BOARD POSITIONS

President-Elect (four-year term including one year as President-elect, two-years as President, and one year as Immediate Past President)

President-Elect. The President- Elect shall serve one-year term as President-Elect. They will assist the President in their duties and will serve on selected committees of the Society as specified in these Bylaws. The President-Elect shall fulfill the duties of the President in case of the President's absence, incapacity, or resignation. Immediately following the President-Elect's term, the President-Elect shall ascend to the office of President.

President. The President shall serve a two year term as President. The President is responsible for all aspects of leadership of the Society, including but not limited to the following: supervising the conduct of the Annual Conference; representing and speaking for the Society; signing contracts and other documents on behalf of the Society, except as such duties are assigned to the Treasurer; and performing other duties authorized by the Board of Directors.

The President shall appoint chairs of all committees, subject to the advice and consent of the Board or, in the case of Committees of the Board, with the advice and consent of a majority of the Board, except as otherwise set forth in the Bylaws.

The President is an ex-officio member of all committees except for the Nomination and Election Committee.

As President, they are responsible for all aspects of leadership of the Society, serves on committees of the Board as specified in the Bylaws, chairs the executive committee, oversees the selection of the winner of the SSWR Distinguished Career Achievement Award, works closely with the program chair and the conference program planning committee and makes a report to the membership each year as to the state of the Society and its likely future direction. As President, this individual arranges for the SSWR Presidential Plenary at the annual conference, represents the Society with federal and other agencies, and (as prescribed by the SSWR By-Laws) appoints board members-at-large to their respective responsibilities on standing and ad hoc committees. As necessary, the President chooses future sites for the annual conference in consultation with the Board and works toward contracting these sites. As Immediate Past-President they serve as a full, voting member of the Board and advises it on all matters of concern to the Society.

Vice President-Elect (Three-year term in total: February 1, 2023 – January 31, 2026)

The Vice President-Elect shall serve a one-year term as Vice President-Elect. The Vice President-Elect will assist the Vice President in the Vice President's role as chair of the Conference Committee. Immediately following the Vice President-Elect's term, the Vice President-Elect shall ascend to the office of Vice President.

The Vice President-Elect serves as a member of the program committee, plans and coordinates the pre-conference methodology workshops and provides direct support to the Vice President in planning the annual conference. The Vice President-Elect serves on the executive committee. The Vice President-Elect becomes the Vice President in the second year of their term. The Vice President serves a one-year term and chairs the conference program planning committee, which plans and coordinates the annual conference program. During periods when there is no President-elect, the Vice-President shall serve as President in the event of the President's resignation, lengthy absence, or incapacity, until the office of President is filled according to the procedures applicable to filling vacancies among the officers. The Vice President serves on the executive committee. Immediately following a Vice President's term as Vice President, such person shall serve a one-year term as Past Vice President. The Past Vice President shall assist the Vice President in their duties and shall fulfill such other duties as directed by the Board.

Director-at-Large (Three-year term: February 1, 2023 – January 31, 2026)

A Director-at-Large may be asked to serve in the following capacities, i.e., chair or co-chair of the following committees: nomination and election committee; awards committee; committee on publications; communications committee, fund development committee, membership committee, social policy committee; research capacity development committee; volunteer coordinator for the annual conference; and members of ad hoc committees and task forces which support the work of the Society's Strategic Plan. Nominees should be prepared to take on one or more of these roles if asked by the President.

Early Career Director-at-Large (Three-year term: February 1, 2023 – January 31, 2026)

In addition to the Director-at-Large responsibilities the Early Career Director-at-Large shall serve as co-chair of the Research Capacity Development Committee. The Early Career Director-at-Large shall have completed their PhD no longer than four years prior to the start of their term.

Qualifications sought in Board nominees include:

- Leadership
- Support for and commitment to SSWR and its mission
- Experience and stature as a researcher
- Communication skills

- Availability and ability to fulfill commitments as a Board member

Nomination Procedures

Please submit a letter of nomination (self-nominations are encouraged), two letters of endorsement, and the nominee's Curriculum Vitae electronically to Linda Sprague Martinez, chair of the Nominations and Elections Committee, at smarti@bu.edu with a copy to Jennifer Lewis, executive director, at lewis@sswr.org. Please send the required documents as an attachment(s) in one email. Please name the file(s) SSWR_elections_nomination [last name]_[position title, e.g., vp-elect]_[nomination, letter of support, CV]. You may send all required documents compiled into one pdf.

Nominations are due Wednesday, August 31, 2022 All nominees must be current members of the Society and shall have been members of SSWR for at least one year prior to their nomination for office. Nominators and those endorsing the nomination must also be current members of the Society. (Please email Kristen Reamy at kristen@sswr.org to verify membership status.) Prior to nomination, the nominator must ensure that their nominee will accept the nomination if it is offered.

Sincerely,

Linda Sprague Martinez, PhD
Chair, Nominations and Elections Committee